

SIB EVO

Product Data Sheet

Inherited from our historic Sib&Co range, Sib Evo is a magnificent evolution of these legendary loudspeakers created in 2002. The design gives added value to the timelessness of the original line by revealing a futurist style with elegant lines to enhance the environment it will blend in with to perfection. The design of the acoustics will ensure the sound reveals the beauty of your favourite films, as well as the quality of your stereo music. Sib Evo is a product from the Home Cinema line which is also ideal for listening to High Definition music.

Key points

- Unrivalled power in its category
- An optimal design for advanced integration
